PAINTED COLLECTION

There's something truly special about a painted finish... whether it be its distinctive touch, or it's crafted aesthetic, it somehow instantly makes you feel right at home.

But for us, what we really love about Paint is its ability to give you choice and flexibility. It allows you to make a room your own, choosing colours to match your personal style and flair. From light to dark, bright to pale, there's a shade to suit everyone's individuality.
